

Corrigé d'Anglais – BEPC – 2015

A Grammar.

I

- 1 Will eat/will be eating/ has eaten or eats/ ate/ is eating/ has eaten
- 2 is going to travel/ is traveling/ will travel or will be traveling
- 3 Came
- 4 Comes or is coming
- 5 Open/opened/ will open/ has opened.

II

- 1 He comes in, takes his keys, opens the kitchen, and eats.
- 2 All the noisy students were punished by the teacher.
- 3 He told me not to eat in class, or He told me that I shouldn't eat in class.
- 4 I bought tangerines, cherries and tomatoes
- 5 He must read enough if he wants to be the first, or if he wants to be the first, he must read enough.

B : Vocabulary.

I

- |     |     |           |             |             |
|-----|-----|-----------|-------------|-------------|
| 1 c | 3 d | 5 b       | 7 Hospital  | 9 Prescribe |
| 2 e | 4 a | 6 consult | 8 examining | 10 Healthy  |

II

- |  |             |
|--|-------------|
| 1 A shopkeeper/shells person / sells woman | 4 A giraffe |
| 2 A baker                                  | 5 A kitchen |
| 3 A midfielder                             |             |

III

- |       |          |          |            |             |
|-------|----------|----------|------------|-------------|
| 1 Saw | 2 Doctor | 3 Carrot | 4 Nigerian | 5 Tangerine |
|-------|----------|----------|------------|-------------|

C : Comprehension.

- 1 There are more refugees in the world than ever before in history. these people who have suffered so much violence or persecution in their homeland that have been forced to flee either to another country or to a safer region their own country.
- 2 They live in crowded camps ; the lack of food, water, healthcare and education.
- 3 They live in crowded camps ; the lack of food, water healthcare and education.
- 4 A brutal civil war broke out in 2003 between troops and rebel fighters, forcing more than three million people to flee their homes.
- 5 Starvation.
- 6 Tanzania.
- 7 Competition for scare resource/finance food/ health/ facilities, etc...