

CORRIGÉS DES SUJETS D'EXAMENS

BAC A4 2006

SECTION A : GRAMMAR

- 1) Knew, would tell, don't know; 2) was looking, requesting
- In Africa, one is expected to begin having children immediately one is married. Children are expected to be a sign that the couple are compatible or that there would be no problem in the marriage. However, if the couple has no child after a few years of marriages, then the search for solutions begins.

SECTION B: VOCABULARY

I. once was required periodically Sick would
Be surprised wife same discovered witch

II.

- More/less..... The more/the less
- Not to/that/shouldn't/that/mustn't
- Wonder/don't know/can imagine/can't imagine
- Slowly/little.

SECTION C: READING COMPREHENSION

- Embezzlement/misappropriation of State funds, fraud and corruption.
- The good governance programme goes side by side with the eradication of corruption.
- "Both ends" means refers to gives and receivers.
- It is difficult to eradicate corruption because it is not easy to stop people from receiving or giving out bribes.
- It is now possible for corruption officials to be brought to answer for their crimes because culprits can be caught through international co-operation.

BAC A4 2007

I. GRAMMAR

EXERCISE 1

- Had failed – Through
- Was not/wasn't... came... had known... would have spent/would spent/was going to have spent/was going to spend/... had given.