Corrigé d'Anglais $-\mathcal{BEPC}-2017$

Section A: GRAMMAR

| Section A : GRAININIAR  |                                  |                          |                           |  |
|---|----------------------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------|--|
| I-Fill in the blanks with the appr1 What was the film about?2 The Principal just went out |                                  |                          | ets.                      |  |
|   |                                  | ne nas gone to.   |                           |  |
| 4 My mother cooked the food,  5 Moves and Ali are the same  |                                  |                          |                           |  |
| [5] Moussa and Ali are the same  | age.                             |                          | •                         |  |
| Use structures in Column A to c   | complete those in colu           | umn B so that they i     | make sens. Write you      |  |
| answers in the space provided   |                                  |                          |                           |  |
| 1 You won't succeed unless you  | ı work hard.                     |                          |                           |  |
| 2 Mary's body was covered with  |                                  |                          |                           |  |
| 3 If Eto'o Fils hadn't played good football he wouldn't have been so popular.                     |                                  |                          |                           |  |
| You should abstain from sex until you are married   |                                  |                          |                           |  |
| Theses oranges are rotten, don't eat them   |                                  |                          |                           |  |
| Section B :VOCABULARY   | 2                                |                          |                           |  |
|   |                                  |                          |                           |  |
| I-Fill in the blanks with the corre   | ect words from the list          | below. Each word s       | hould be used once.       |  |
| 1 After twelve hours the jury f   | inally reached its verdic | t, the prisoner was gu   | ilty/                     |  |
| 2 Mrs. Adam works at the centa midwife  | cral hospital, she helps o       | ther women when the      | y are giving birth, she i |  |
| 3 Peter and John were born or 4 In the village we usual fetch                              |                                  | ame mother, they are     | twins                     |  |
| 5 Most experiments done in go   | ood laboratories are relia       | able.                    |                           |  |
| II- Change the underlined word  | ls as indicated and wi           | rite your answers on     | the space                 |  |
| 1 Pronunciation 2 Speak   | 3 Flight                         | 4 Investment             | 5 Beautiful.              |  |
| III- Underline the odd word/sou   | nd as in the example             | : bird, burn, bed |                           |  |
| 1 Call 2 great  | 3 Stomach                        | 4 Women                  | 5 young                   |  |
| Section C : READING COMPREH   | ENSION                           |                          |                           |  |

2 If man was removed from the scene, there will no longer be hungry and overwork: the root cause of hunger and overwork will be abolished forever; they will like their natural live span.

1 The animals in the text : caws, horses, pigs, hens, chickens.

WWW.ORNIFORMATION.COM

- 3 The main enemy of the animals in the passage is man, because he benefits more from the products of their labour, animals are exploited by them; they set animals to work for little; man consumes as a result of their labour without producing.
- [4] Two animals products that are consumed by man in the text are milk from cows and egg from hens.
- 5 The end of animals according to the speaker is that they are killed.
- 6 No, the speaker don't like man because he calls man his enemy; nothing positive is said about man.